

Robert C. Strasburg II

As a voting citizen of New York State, I am strongly opposed to the NYSERDA industrial wind tax breaks. When will we as citizens get recognized justice from this ill management of our tax dollars in funding wind as a viable contributor to our real energy needs. Because reliability and production is undoubtedly weak, our dollars which need to be spent wisely are being wasted.